

▲ DR. WALTER H. CAMPBELL

◀ EDWARD M. LINDSEY

OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

OF LIONS INTERNATIONAL

Edward M. Lindsey, Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, is the President of Lions International. A Key Member, he has a 20-year perfect attendance record. After holding several offices in his club, including the presidency, Lion Lindsey served his district as zone chairman, deputy governor and governor. While an International Director, he was on the Board's Executive Committee. He was mayor of Lawrenceburg for four years and, in 1955, was selected Tennessee's outstanding mayor. President Lindsey is interested in historical matters and was awarded a Life membership in the Lawrence County Historical Society for his outstanding contribution during the years he served as its president. He is a furniture manufacturer. An active member of the Methodist Church, he often serves as lay speaker. He and his wife, Virginia, have one daughter, Mrs. Jerry (Anne) Ray and a grandson, Jerry Jr.

Dr. Walter H. Campbell, Miami Beach, Florida, is the Immediate Past International President. He holds the Merit Award, Extension Awards, 100% District Governor's Award, International President's Awards, and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. He is also a Key Member. Lion Campbell has been honored with the Ruben Dario decoration by Nicaragua for worldwide humanitarian service. Prior to becoming a dentist, he was an educator, having been a teacher, athletic coach and school administrator. He received his education at Tennessee State College, Duke University and Northwestern University. He is a deacon in the Miami Beach Community Church, where he and his wife, Terry (Victoria), are members.

Jorge Bird

David A. Evans

W. R. Bryan

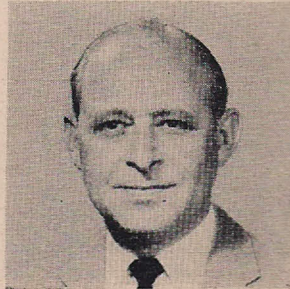

Johnny Balbo

Don M. Berry

Leon Campell

Ralph F. Easter

John O. (Jack) Filkin

Jorge Bird, San Juan, Puerto Rico, is the First Vice-President of Lions International. A Lion for 29 years, he has served in all positions in his club of Rio Piedras and also in District 51. He was the first governor to qualify for the 100% Award in his district and was selected Ambassador of Good Will. He served as an International Director in 1957-59. Lion Bird presides over Bird Enterprise, a combination travel, food, hotel, dairy, gasoline, finance and real estate business. He was president of the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce in 1958 and has been an Elk for 30 years. He is a Roman Catholic. He and his wife, Victoria, have three daughters, two sons and three grandchildren.

David A. Evans, Texas City, Texas, is the Second Vice-President of Lions International. Lion Evans has been a member of the Texas City club for 15 years, has held most club offices and was a 100% District Governor in 1959-60. A Senior Master Key Member, he has introduced 31 men to Lionism. As an International Director in 1963-64, he was Chairman of the International Membership Committee. He is the recipient of several International President's Awards. He is a general contractor with his own firm. Lion Evans and his wife, Betty, have two children, Tanya René and Joe.

W. R. Bryan, Doylestown, Ohio, is the Third Vice-President. He has held every club office and was a 100% District Governor. He holds seven Presidential Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. As Director, he was on the Membership Development and Retention Committee. Educated at the College of Wooster, Ohio State University and Harvard, he is director of management development at Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. He is active in the Boy Scouts of America at the national level and in local civic and charitable organizations. He and his wife, Celia, have two children, Sally, 26, and Larry, 21, and are members of the Methodist Church.

Johnny Balbo, Western Springs, Illinois. Director. The holder of four International President Awards, he held offices at the club and District levels, once was Chairman of the State Council of Governors. At one time he was light heavyweight wrestling's world champion, and now owns a trailer park. He and his wife Anne have three children and are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Don McDowell Berry, Juneau, Alaska. Director. In 14 years of perfect attendance, he has held most club offices, has three Outstanding Achievement Awards, and was a 100% District Governor. Director Berry has served on the Executive Council of the Board of Governors and is the recipient of an International President's Award. He is Executive Director for the Alaska Municipal League. His family consists of his wife Pat and two daughters. They belong to the Roman Catholic Church.

Leon Campell, Greenville, South Carolina. Director. A past member of the International Executive Council, he has held key posts in Lionism, including the Presidency of the Greenville Club, Cabinet Secretary-Treasurer and District Governor for 32-A. Lion Campell has a 29-year record of perfect attendance. His work as a realtor still leaves him time for many community endeavors. He is a Reform Jew, a widower and father of a daughter, Edith.

Ralph F. Easter, North Platte, Nebraska. Director. He holds a President's Award, Master Key and three Extension Pins, worked his way through club offices to 100% District Governor, then Chairman of the State Council. An alumnus of Doane College, he now owns a bakery in North Platte and has been Lincoln County March of Dimes Chairman for 16 years. A Roman Catholic, he and his wife Lois have two children.

John Osborne Filkin, Toronto, Ontario. Director. A Lion since 1950, he was President of his local club in 1958-59 and Zone Chairman the following year. Since that time he has served as Deputy District Governor and 100% District Governor. He holds five Extension Awards. He is a landscape architect. Lion Filkin and his wife, Clare, have three daughters and one son.

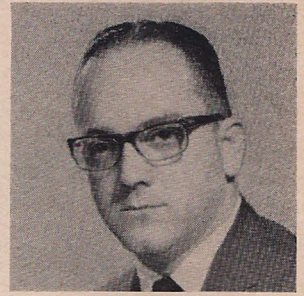

Thomas S. Gwynn Jr.

A. James Lundberg

V. Marciel

Dr. Aureo Rodrigues

Richard H. Ruff

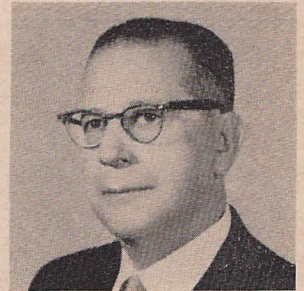

Adolfo Aponte T.

Fauzi W. Azar

Gral. Rodolfo Balmaceda Arratia

Thomas Summers Gwynn, Jr., Clinton, Md. Director. A charter president of two clubs, he has held the post of District Convention Chairman and was a 100% District Governor. He is a Key Member and holds the Merit Award and three Extension Awards. Director Gwynn is Assistant Superintendent of Schools in Prince George's County, Md. He and his wife, Letitia, have four children.

A. James Lundberg, Provo, Utah, was elected Director to complete the term of the late Alton C. Melville, of Salt Lake City. Lion Lundberg has served his club and district in several offices, culminating in his year as governor. He is in the insurance business and was educated at Brigham Young and Stanford universities. He and his wife, Ila Claire, are active members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and have four children.

Valentine Umi Marciel, Kailua, Hawaii. Director. Holding every office at the club level, Lion Marciel organized the Waioli and Pali clubs. He is a Master Key Member, has received the International President's award and has maintained a perfect attendance record for over 25 years. He was District Governor in 1954-55. He and his wife, Helen Marie, have two children, Valentine, Jr. and Kuulei.

Dr. Aureo Rodrigues, Santos, Sao Paulo, Brazil. Director. Lion Rodrigues has been a Deputy District Governor and District Governor of District L-4. He holds two Extension Awards, the Silver and Advancement Key, two International President's awards and has a ten-year record of perfect attendance. Dr. Rodrigues is a member of the Brazilian Medical Association and also a lawyer. He and his wife, Selma, are Catholics and have three children.

Richard Harrison Ruff, Welch, W. Va. Director. A past club officer of the Welch club, he has 18 years' perfect attendance. He was a 100% District Governor in 1956-57. He is a Key Member, holds two Extension Awards and two International President awards. He is a founder and member of several community organizations. Lion Ruff and his wife Virginia Jean are members of the Episcopal Church and have one son, Richard.

Adolfo Aponte T., Santa Cruz, Bolivia. Director. He has served his club as president and has held the posts of zone chairman, deputy governor and governor. A surgeon, he is active in several social and professional organizations, has collected military decorations and was made an honorary citizen of Arkansas. He and his wife, Sonia, have five children and are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Fauzi W. Azar, Beirut, Lebanon. Director. Holder of a 10-year perfect attendance record, he is a Key Member and has received the Citation of Appreciation. He has served his Beirut club as president and has held the offices of deputy governor and governor. Director Azar is in the real estate field and a graduate of the American University of Beirut. He and his wife, Edma, have three children and are members of the Greek Orthodox Church.

Rodolfo Balmaceda Arratia, Mexico City, Mexico. Director. Lion Balmaceda has held most offices in his local club and has received numerous International awards. He is a brigadier general and is the recipient of various military decorations and honors. Active in civil and military organizations, Director Balmaceda is a member of the Roman Catholic Church. He and his wife, Maria Luisa, have two children.

OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

OF LIONS INTERNATIONAL

Trevor P. Baron

Friedrich von
Beaufort-Spontin

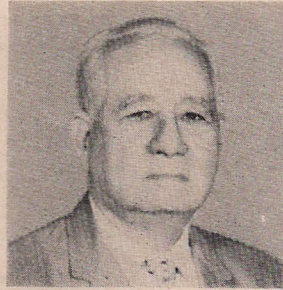

Joe B. Davis

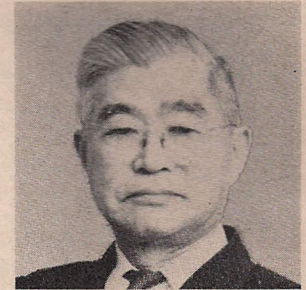

Paul A. Eckelman

Dr. Santos Erminy
Arismendi

Masao Fukushima

Trevor P. Baron, Hamilton, New Zealand. Director. A Key Member, he has held several club offices, including the presidency, and was a zone chairman, deputy governor and 100% District Governor. A sports enthusiast, Lion Baron is professionally occupied as a public accountant and received his education at Victoria University. He and his wife, Joan, have five children and are members of the Church of England.

Paul A. Eckelman, Portland, Oregon. Director. He has received a Senior Master Key, two Extension Awards and four District Governor Appreciation awards. He has held several offices at the club level and was a 100% District Governor. He is in the investment field and was educated at the Universities of Minnesota and Oregon. Lion Eckelman and his wife, Barbara, are members of the Presbyterian Church and have two children.

Friedrich von Beaufort-Spontin, Voitsberg, Austria. Director. The holder of several Lionistic awards, he has been the president of his club and has held offices at the district level leading up to and including the post of district governor. A former mayor of Gallmannesegg, he is a professor of agriculture and forestry. He and his wife Christiane are members of the Roman Catholic Church and have two children.

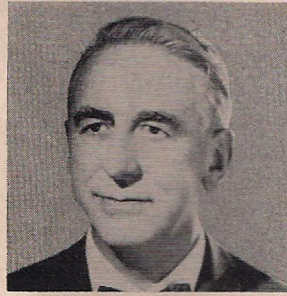

Dr. Santos Erminy Arismendi, Caracas, Venezuela. Director. He has been a club president, 100% District Governor, and a president of the Council of Governors in the Bolivian area. He holds the Presidential Medal and Appreciation Award. Lion Erminy has published 12 books, one of them on the history of Lionism. He has held a number of government positions in the fields of finance and education. Engaged in the investment and banking business, he and his wife, Cecilia, have one son and a married daughter. They are Roman Catholics.

Joseph B. Davis, Atlanta, Georgia. Director. A Key member, Lion Davis has achieved 26 years of perfect attendance. He was president of his local club and was district governor. An area director of the Red Cross, Director Davis is in the insurance field. He and his wife, Pauline, are Baptists and the parents of one daughter.

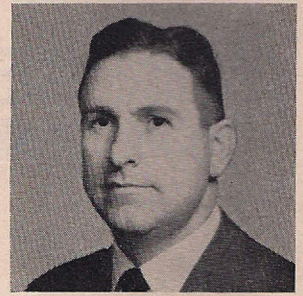

Masao Fukushima, Tokyo, Japan. Director. A former president of his club, he has held the district offices of zone chairman and governor and was eligible for the 100% District Governor's award. He has received government honors and decorations as well. He is the president of the Kao Soap Co. and received his education at the Tokyo Imperial University in the field of law. A widower, he is the father of three children and a member of Japan's Presbyterian Church.

Virgil P. Moshansky

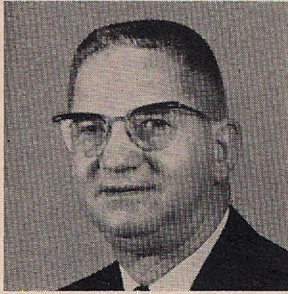

Prof. Dr. Giovanni
Ferdinando Gardini

Philip G. Peters

Harold L. Pocklington

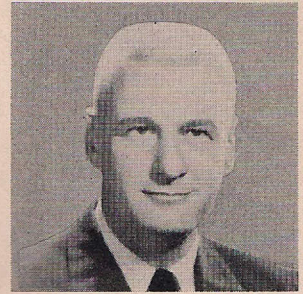

Bab Simontacchi

Jan Eric Skappel

Maxson P. Strub

Giovanni Ferdinando Gardini, Bologna, Italy. Director. The charter president of the Bologna club, he has been a deputy governor and district governor, and is a Key Member. Director Gardini is a radiologist, having received his training at Bologna University. He and his wife, Anna Maria, are members of the Roman Catholic Church and are the parents of four children.

Virgil P. Moshansky, Vegreville, Alberta. Director. He has been president of the Vegreville club and district governor. He was chairman of the Council of District 37 Governors and is the holder of three Extension awards. A lawyer, he was chairman of the membership development committee of the Law Society of America. He was educated at the University of Alberta. He and his wife, June, have four children and are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Philip G. Peters, Manchester, New Hampshire. Director. A past president of the Manchester club, he was a zone chairman, deputy governor and 100% District Governor. He is a 15-year Old Monarch and a Key Member with 16 years' perfect attendance. Lion Peters is a lawyer and district court judge. He is also a Mason, Shriner and American Legioneer. He and his wife, Stella, have three children and are active in the Greek Orthodox Church.

Harold L. Pocklington, Algonac, Michigan. Director. He has the distinction of 26 years' perfect attendance, is a past club president and has served as zone chairman, deputy governor and a 100% District Governor. He also holds the Merit, Extension and Presidential awards, and is a Key Member. Executive director of Leader Dogs for the Blind, he and his wife, Dorothy, are parents of three children and members of the Trinity Methodist Church.

Bab Simontacchi, Crockett, California. Director. He has a total of 33 years' perfect attendance and has received the Master Key and Extension and Merit awards. His Lion offices have included that of club president, zone chairman, deputy governor and district governor. Director Simontacchi is in the furniture and appliance business. He is also an Elk. He and his wife, Mary, are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Jan Eric Skappel, Oslo, Norway. Director. After serving as secretary and president of his club, he held the posts of deputy governor and district governor. He has received the Extension and President's awards and is a Key Member. In addition to military decorations, he holds King Haakon VII's remembrance medal. A lieutenant commander in the Royal Norwegian Navy, he is now a managing director. He and his wife, Pernille, have one son and are Lutherans.

Maxson P. Strub, Warren, New Jersey. Director. A former president of the Warren club, he has 13 years' perfect attendance and is a Key Member. He was a zone chairman, cabinet secretary and 100% District Governor. The treasurer of an electronics firm, he received his education at Rutgers University. Lion Strub and his wife, Nancy, are Protestants and have one daughter, Suzanne.