

OFFICERS & DIRECTORS OF LIONS INTERNATIONAL

JORGE BIRD

EDWARD M. LINDSEY

Jorge Bird, San Juan, Puerto Rico, is the President of Lions International. Lion Bird, a past International Director, is a Key Member of the Rio Piedras club. He was named Ambassador of Good Will prior to his election as Third Vice President in 1964. In 1965, he earned Extension Awards for founding clubs in the Dominican Republic, Spain and Jamaica, and two years later was presented with the Puerto Rico Lions' highest honor—the Eugenio Maria de Hostos Award—for having done the most for the Commonwealth. He was born in Guayama, Puerto Rico, studied commerce at the University of Puerto Rico, and now presides over Bird Enterprises, which includes food, travel, gasoline, dairy and real estate interests. President Bird is a member of the Board of Vocational Education and the President's Council of the Inter-American University. He also has served as a director of the Inter-American Chamber of Commerce. A past president of the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce, he founded the local convention bureau. He and his wife, Victoria Luisa Vilella, have five children and three grandchildren. He is a Catholic.

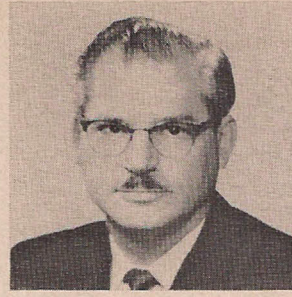

Edward M. Lindsey, Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, is the Immediate Past International President. A Key Member, he has a 21-year perfect attendance record. While an International Director, he was on the Board's Executive Committee. He was mayor of Lawrenceburg for four years and, in 1955, was selected Tennessee's outstanding mayor. Lion Lindsey was awarded a Life membership in the Lawrence County Historical Society for his outstanding contribution during the years he served as its president. He is a furniture manufacturer. An active member of the Methodist Church, he often serves as lay speaker. He and his wife, Virginia, have a daughter and grandson.

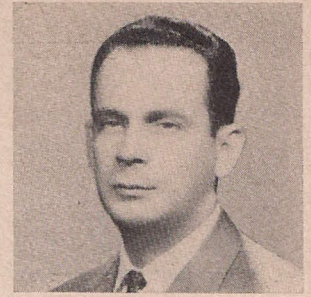

David A. Evans

W. R. Bryan

Dr. Robert D. McCullough

Adolfo Aponte T.

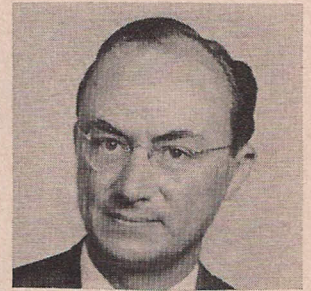

Fauzi W. Azar

Rodolfo Balmaceda Arratia

Trevor P. Baron

Friedrich von Beaufort-Spontin

David A. Evans, Texas City, Texas, is the First Vice-President of Lions International. Lion Evans has been a member of the Texas City club for 16 years, has held most club offices and was a 100% District Governor in 1959-60. A Senior Master Key Member, he has introduced 31 men to Lionism. As an International Director in 1963-64, he was Chairman of the International Membership Committee. He is the recipient of several International President's Awards. He is a general contractor with his own firm. Lion Evans and his wife, Betty, have two children, Tanya René and Joe.

W. R. Bryan, Doylestown, Ohio, is the Second Vice-President. He has held every club office and was a 100% District Governor. He holds seven Presidential Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. As Director, he was on the Membership Development and Retention Committee. Educated at the College of Wooster, Ohio State University and Harvard, he is director of management development at Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. He is active in the Boy Scouts of America at the national level and in local civic and charitable organizations. He and his wife, Celia, have two children, Sally, 27, and Larry, 22, and are members of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Robert D. McCullough, Tulsa, Oklahoma, is the Third Vice-President. A past International Director, he holds three International President's Awards. Dr. McCullough received his doctorate from Kansas City College of Osteopathy and Surgery and is a member of the state board of health. He is chairman of the Tulsa Youth for Christ board of directors, a director of the Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind and a First Baptist Church deacon. He and his wife, Bert, have two married children and four grandchildren.

Adolfo Aponte T., Santa Cruz, Bolivia. Director. He has served his club as president and has held the posts of zone chairman, deputy governor and governor. A surgeon, he is active in several social and professional organizations, has collected military decorations and was made an honorary citizen of Arkansas. He and his wife, Sonia, have five children and are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Fauzi W. Azar, Beirut, Lebanon. Director. Holder of a 11-year perfect attendance record, he is a Key Member and has received the Citation of Appreciation. He has served his Beirut club as president and has held the offices of deputy governor and governor. Director Azar is in the real estate field and a graduate of the American University of Beirut. He and his wife, Edma, have three children and are members of the Greek Orthodox Church.

Rodolfo Balmaceda Arratia, Mexico City, Mexico. Director. Lion Balmaceda has held most offices in his local club and has received numerous International awards. He is a brigadier general and is the recipient of various military decorations and honors. Active in civil and military organizations, Director Balmaceda is a member of the Roman Catholic Church. He and his wife, Maria Luisa, have two children.

Trevor P. Baron, Hamilton, New Zealand. Director. A Key Member, he has held several club offices, including the presidency, and was a zone chairman, deputy governor and 100% District Governor. A sports enthusiast, Lion Baron is professionally occupied as a public accountant and received his education at Victoria University. He and his wife, Joan, have five children and are members of the Church of England.

Friedrich von Beaufort-Spontin, Voitsberg, Austria. Director. The holder of several Lionistic awards, he has been the president of his club and has held offices at the district level leading up to and including the post of district governor. A former mayor of Gallmannesegg, he is a professor of agriculture and forestry. He and his wife, Christiane, are members of the Roman Catholic Church and have two children.

Joseph B. Davis, Atlanta, Georgia. Director. A Key Member, Lion Davis has achieved 27 years of perfect attendance. He was president of his local club and was district governor. An area director of the Red Cross, Director Davis is in the insurance field. He and his wife, Pauline, are Baptists and the parents of one daughter.

Paul A. Eckelman, Portland, Oregon. Director. He has received a Senior Master Key, two Extension Awards and four District Governor Appreciation Awards. He has held several offices at the club level and was a 100% District Governor. He is in the investment field and was educated at the Universities of Minnesota and Oregon. Lion Eckelman and his wife, Barbara, are members of the Presbyterian Church and have two children.

Dr. Santos Erminy Arismendi, Caracas, Venezuela. Director. He has been a club president, 100% District Governor, and a president of the Council of Governors in the Bolivarian area. He holds the Presidential Medal and Appreciation Award. Lion Erminy has published 12 books, one of them on the history of Lionism. He has held a number of government positions in the fields of finance and education. Engaged in the investment and banking business, he and his wife, Cecilia, have one son and a married daughter. They are Roman Catholics.

Masao Fukushima, Tokyo, Japan. Director. A former president of his club, he has held the district offices of zone chairman and governor and was eligible for the 100% District Governor's award. He has received government honors and decorations as well. He is the president of the Kao Soap Co. and received his education at the Tokyo Imperial University in the field of law. A widower, he is the father of three children and a member of Japan's Presbyterian Church.

Giovanni Ferdinando Gardini, Bologna, Italy. Director. The charter president of the Bologna club, he has been a deputy governor and district governor, and is a Key Member. Director Gardini is a radiologist, having received his training at Bologna University. He and his wife, Anna Maria, are members of the Roman Catholic Church and are the parents of four children.

Virgil P. Moshansky, Vegreville, Alberta, Canada. Director. He has been president of the Vegreville club and district governor. He was chairman of the Council of District 37 Governors and is the holder of three Extension Awards. A lawyer, he was chairman of the membership development committee of the Law Society of America. He was educated at the University of Alberta. He and his wife, June, have four children and are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Philip G. Peters, Manchester, New Hampshire. Director. A past president of the Manchester club, he was a zone chairman, deputy governor and 100% District Governor. He is a 15-year Old Monarch and a Key Member with 17 years' perfect attendance. Lion Peters is a lawyer and district court judge. He is also a Mason, Shriner and American Legioneer. He and his wife, Stella, have three children and are active in the Greek Orthodox Church.

Harold L. Pocklington, Algonac, Michigan. Director. He has the distinction of 27 years' perfect attendance, is a past club president and has served as zone chairman, deputy governor and a 100% District Governor. He also holds the Merit, Extension and Presidential Awards, and is a Key Member. Executive director of Leader Dogs for the Blind, he and his wife, Dorothy, are parents of three children and members of the Trinity Methodist Church.

Joe B. Davis

Paul A. Eckelman

Santos Erminy Arismendi

Masao Fukushima

Giovanni Ferdinando Gardini

Virgil P. Moshansky

Philip G. Peters

Harold L. Pocklington

OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

CONTINUED

Bab Simontacchi

Jan Eric Skappel

Bab Simontacchi, Crockett, California. Director. He has a total of 34 years' perfect attendance and has received the Master Key and Extension and Merit Awards. His Lion offices have included that of club president, zone chairman, deputy governor and district governor. Director Simontacchi is in the furniture and appliance business. He is also an Elk. He and his wife, Mary, are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Jan Eric Skappel, Oslo, Norway. Director. After serving as secretary and president of his club, he held the posts of deputy governor and district governor. He has received the Extension and President's Awards and is a Key Member. In addition to military decorations, he holds King Haakon VII's remembrance medal. A lieutenant commander in the Royal Norwegian Navy, he is now a managing director. He and his wife, Pernille, have one son and are Lutherans.

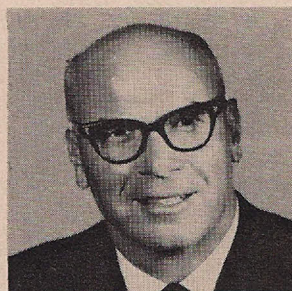

Maxson P. Strub

Norman E. Brennan

Maxson P. Strub, Warren, New Jersey. Director. A former president of the Warren club, he has 14 years' perfect attendance and is a Key Member. He was a zone chairman, cabinet secretary and 100% District Governor. The treasurer of an electronics firm, he received his education at Rutgers University. Lion Strub and his wife, Nancy, are Protestants and have one daughter, Suzanne.

Norman E. Brennan, Indianapolis, Indiana. Director. He has a 16-year perfect attendance record and holds a Key Award, Extension Award and 100% District Governor's Award. Formerly a judge of the Supreme Court of Marion County and county school lecturer and teacher, he is currently engaged in private law practice. Director Brennan is a member of the Zion Evangelical United Church of Christ. He and his wife, Reva, have three sons and a daughter.

Dar Elder

Faren C. Faler

Dar Elder, Woodland Park, Colorado. Director. The charter president of his club, he has a 14-year perfect attendance record. Director Elder did undergraduate work at Midland College and received a masters degree at the University of Colorado. He also attended Harvard's Graduate Business School and holds the Blue Key of the National Scholastic Society. He has been a real estate broker and building contractor for the past 20 years. He and his wife, Trulie, are Protestants.

Faren C. Faler, Twin Falls, Idaho. Director. Lion Faler has held all club offices and as district governor was multiple district council chairman. He has received many Lion honors, which include club presidential awards, an Extension Award and a Master Key. Director Faler, an insurance agency owner, has also held office in many civic and insurance organizations. He and his wife, Paula, have two sons, a daughter and nine grandchildren. He is a Protestant.

Howard W. Grimm

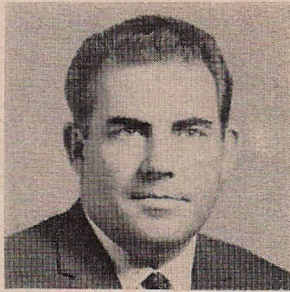

Floyd D. Hamman

W. Tom Jones

Joseph W. Lawson

A. James Lundberg

Dr. Altivo Teixeira da Silva

Dr. Wm. T. (Bill) Waite

Howard W. Grimm, Olympia, Washington. Director. He has held major club and district offices, was chairman of the council of governors for Multiple District 19 and holds a Key Award, 100% District Governor's Award, two Extension Awards and six Distinguished Service Awards from his district. Lion Grimm attended the University of Washington and is president of a credit exchange and doctors' business bureau. He and his wife, Jean, have four sons. He is a Presbyterian.

Floyd D. Hamman, Phoenix, Arizona. Director. He has been district governor as well as a director of several state-wide Lion charities and holds a Master Key, four Extension Awards and four District Governor's Appreciation Awards. A 1953 graduate of Arizona State University, Lion Hamman is in the lumber business, is active in community youth programs and is a member of the Baptist Church. He and his wife, Marilyn, have four boys.

W. Tom Jones, Montgomery, Alabama. Director. Holder of a Master Key, two Extension Awards and an International President's Award, he has a 24-year perfect attendance record and is a past club president and past district governor. A gasoline and oil jobber, he is active in many professional and civic groups. In 1965, the citizens of Montgomery held a "Tom Jones Day" in honor of his service. He and his wife, Mildred, have two daughters and three grandchildren. He is a Methodist.

Joseph W. Lawson, Bristol, Virginia. Director. A past district governor, he holds a Master Key, an International President's Award and a Lions International Special Service Award. Lion Lawson, former mayor of Princeton,

West Virginia, is a labor relations consultant and has headed many community and professional organizations. He is a member of the First Church of Christ Scientist. He and his wife, Marguerite, have four sons and two daughters.

A. James Lundberg, Provo, Utah. Director. He has had extensive experience, serving his club and district in many offices. In 1966, he was appointed International Director to fill the term of Alton C. Melville, who died at the end of his first year of office. Lion Lundberg was educated at Brigham Young and Stanford universities, and is in the insurance business. He and his wife, Ila Claire, are members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and have four children.

Dr. Altivo Teixeira da Silva, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Director. He is a charter member of his club and has been its treasurer and president. He has also been zone chairman and district governor and holds a Key Award, Extension Award and Melvin Jones Award. Lion Silva, a medical doctor, is a member of the Brazilian College of Surgeons and Brazilian Society of Geriatrics and Gerontology. He and his wife, Diva, have two daughters. He is Catholic.

Dr. Wm. T. (Bill) Waite, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada. Director. A past district governor, he has an 18-year perfect attendance record and is holder of numerous club, district and International awards. Lion Waite is a dentist, past director of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind and past president of a flying club. He and his wife, Margaret, have two children. He is a member of the Bethel United Church.