

W. Richard Bryan, of Doylestown, Ohio, is the President of Lions International. Our 53rd standard bearer has been a Lion for nearly 30 years and was elected to the Third International Vice-Presidency at the 1966 New York convention. He has been a 100% District Governor and holds seven Presidential Awards. As an International Director in 1957-59, he served on the Membership Development and Retention Committee. Lion Bryan is a 1938 graduate of Wooster College, attended graduate school at Ohio State, and participated in the Advanced Management Program at the Harvard Graduate School of Business in 1959. He was a high school teacher in Doylestown for five years and in 1945 joined the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. Beginning as a wholesale operating trainee, he worked his way up through successive managerial posts and is now Director of Management Development. Lion Bryan has been active in many civic groups and, in his continual dedication to youth, served for many years on his local board of education. He has been a YMCA volunteer and is currently on the national professional training committee for the Boy Scouts of America. He and his wife, Celia, are members of the Methodist Church and have two children, Sally and Larry.

Officers and Directors of Lions International

David A. Evans, of Texas City, Texas, is the Immediate Past President. A member of his home club for 18 years, he has held most club offices and served as a 100% District Governor in 1959-60. Lion Evans is a Past International Director and while on the Board, served as chairman of the International Membership Committee in 1963-64. He holds several International President's Awards as well as the Senior Master Key. He is a general contractor with his own construction firm and his varied civic responsibilities have included those of a civil defense director and membership on the port pilot commission for Galveston and Texas City. Lion Evans and his wife, Betty, have two children, Tanya René and David Joseph.

Dr. Robert D. McCullough

Robert J. Uplinger

George Friedrichs

Charles B. Allison

Harry J. Aslan

Alden Briggs

Dr. Hector Ricardo Caballero

George Edwin Daly

Dr. Robert D. McCullough, Tulsa, Oklahoma, is the First Vice-President. A Past International Director, he holds three International President's Awards. Dr. McCullough received his doctorate from Kansas City College of Osteopathy and Surgery and is a member of the state board of health. He is chairman of the Tulsa Youth for Christ board of directors, a director of the Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind and a First Baptist Church deacon. He and his wife, Bert, have two married children and four grandchildren.

Robert J. Uplinger, Syracuse, New York, is the Second Vice-President. A member of the Syracuse club since 1946, he was a 100% District Governor in 1956-57 and was chairman of the New York Council.

He served on the International Board in 1964-66. Lion Uplinger is the recipient of the Membership Key, two Extension Awards, New York State Council Awards and three Presidential Awards. An industrial engineer, he is president and treasurer of a firm which distributes power transmission equipment. He and his wife Martha are members of the First English Lutheran Church and have two children, Robert Jr. and Karen.

George Friedrichs, of Ancey, France, is the Third Vice-President. A charter member and past president of his club, Lion Friedrichs is a former zone chairman, 100% District Governor, and an International Director in 1964-66. He founded and is currently honorary chairman of Compagnie Generale de Metrologie "Metrix," a manufacturer of electronic measurement instruments, now associated with International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. A bank director and former chairman of the French Civil Engineering Society, Lion Friedrichs and his wife, Ninon, have three married daughters.

Charles Baird Allison, Haywards Heath, Sussex, England, Director. He's held major offices in his club and district, and is a Key Member and 100% District Governor. He was a member of the executive council of the Board of Governors in 1960-61. A chartered accountant, he attended the London School of Economics and served in the Royal Air Force during World War II. He is a Presbyterian. Lion Allison and his wife, Lucy, have two children.

Harry J. Aslan, Kingsburg, California, a Director, has held many offices in his club and served his district as 100% Governor. He has maintained 17 years' perfect attendance, is a Key Member and a recipient of the Founders Program Award. He is the owner-operator of a fruit packing and cold storage plant. Lion Aslan is a member of the Knights Templar and a Shriner. He and his wife, Freeda, are Presbyterians. They have a son and daughter.

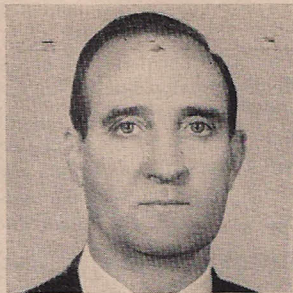

Alden Briggs, Eugene, Oregon, a Director, has been a Lion since 1949 and served on his club's board of directors for 12 consecutive years. He was a 100% District Governor and chairman of the Multiple Board of Governors. Graduated from Jamestown College, he is the president and manager of a printing firm. Long active in local school affairs, he is now chairman of the county board of education. Lion Briggs and his wife, Muriel, are Lutherans and have two daughters.

Dr. Hector Ricardo Caballero, Asuncion, Paraguay, a Director, holds the 100% District Governor's Award, the Melvin Jones Award and the Special Master Key. He graduated from the National University of Asuncion as a surgeon and is now president of the Medical Circle of Paraguay. He is an associate professor of physiology of the Faculty of the Medical Sciences of Asuncion. He and his wife, America, have two children and are Roman Catholics.

George Edwin Daly, Flint, Michigan, a Director, is the recipient of three Key Member Awards. Lion Daly holds degrees from Central Michigan and Wayne State universities. He is a school superintendent and a member of the National Education Association. He has received awards for promoting better understanding within the community and between public and private schools. He and his wife, Theda, have one married daughter and are Presbyterians.

George E. Davidson

Vincente Ferrer Segura

James D. Foster

Hernando Franco I.

Clarion S. Johnson

S. "Jamie" Jamieson

Gilbert Payot

Jagdish R. Sondhi

George Earle Davidson, Baltimore, Maryland, a Director, has 21 years of perfect attendance. He has served as a 100% Governor and is the recipient of a Master Key and four Extension Awards. Lion Davidson, deputy superintendent of the Maryland State Police, is a graduate of the Harvard University seminar in homicide investigation and the FBI National Academy, and attended the University of Maryland. He has been a lecturer at the University of Maryland and the University of Louisville. He and his wife, Connie, have one daughter and two grandsons, and are members of the Ascension and Peace Episcopal Church.

Vincente Ferrer Segura, Orizaba, Ver., Mexico. Director. After having held several offices in his local club, including that of president, he served his district as zone chairman, deputy governor, governor and chairman of the Council of Governors for District B. An industrialist, he is also the recipient of several Red Cross and governmental awards. He is a member of the Mexican Council of Tourism. Lion Ferrer and his wife, Ana Maria, are Roman Catholics and the parents of two children.

James D. Foster, River Falls, Wisconsin, a Director, is a Key Member and has served his district as a 100% Governor. He is the recipient of the District Governor Appreciation Award and two Extension Awards. Lion Foster is the president of the Tousley Furniture Co. and has served on the boards of directors of the local chamber of commerce and the United Fund and on the Methodist Church Official Board. He and his wife, Mercedes, have three sons and are Methodists.

Hernando Franco I., Bogota, Colombia. Director. He's been a member of the Bogota club since 1947 and has served his district as a 100% Governor. A practicing attorney in Bogota since 1949, he is the co-justice of the Supreme Court of Colombia and the High Court of Bogota. He received his doctorate from the Universidad Externado in Colombia and is a professor of the law department and Institute for Post Graduate Work at the University. Lion Franco is a Catholic.

S. (Jamie) Jamieson, Newmarket, Australia, a Director, has held all offices of his club. He served his district as governor and Australian Council Chairman. He is the recipient of the District Governor Award, three Extension Awards, Key Award, four District Governor Appreciation Awards and two Melvin Jones Extension Awards. Now a real estate consultant, he once served in the Royal Australian Air Force overseas service. He and his wife, June, have two sons and a daughter.

Clarion S. Johnson, Joliet, Illinois, a Director, is a Key Member with 29 years' perfect attendance. He was a 100% District Governor, was cited for organizing eight clubs during his term and has been state chairman of Membership Development and Retention since 1963, each year receiving an award for his accomplishments. Lion Johnson attended St. Olaf College and the University of Illinois and is now the general manager of Kline's Department Stores. He was awarded four Battle Stars for World War II service in the U.S. Navy. He and his wife, Louise, have one son and are Lutherans.

Gilbert Payot, Neuchatel, Switzerland, a Director, is a past president of his club who served his district as a 100% Governor in 1961-62. An attorney, he's held the civic positions of general counsellor for the city of Neuchatel and grand counsellor for the canton of Neuchatel. He and his wife, Jacqueline, are Protestants and are the parents of a son and a daughter.

Jagdish R. Sondhi, Mombasa, Kenya. Director. He's a charter member and past president of his club and served his district as zone chairman and 100% Governor, receiving eight District Governor Extension Awards. A consulting engineer, he received his degree from Roorkee University and is a member of various professional societies. His technical articles have appeared in Indian and British journals. He and his wife, Shirin, are parents of three children.

Henry Steinfeld, Portland, Maine, a Director, has served his district as zone chairman, membership and retention chairman and 100% Governor. Having achieved 20 years' perfect attendance, he is the recipient of a 15-year Old Monarch Award, Master Key Award and two Presidential Awards. An attorney, he was educated at Boston University and Northwestern University School of Law. He is a member of the American Trial Lawyers Association and a past president of the Falmouth's Men's Club. He and his wife, Marion, are members of the Jewish faith.

Henry Steinfeld

Ake Wangö

Ake Wangö, Danderyd, Sweden, a Director, is completing the unexpired term of the late Gunnar Stjernstrom. Lion Wangö has served as District 101-O Governor and as chairman of Sweden's Council of Governors. He was Sweden's International Relations Chairman in 1968-69. He is a graduate of the University of Uppsala, a partner in his own law firm, and a member of his city council. He and his wife, Ulla-Britta, have three children.

Umekichi Yasuda

Leonard M. Cella

Umekichi Yasuda, Gifu City, Japan. Director. A charter member of his club with 12 years' perfect attendance, Lion Yasuda has served as deputy governor and 100% District Governor. He is the president of Dai Nippon Doboku Co., Ltd., general contractors, and is a director for five business organizations. He received his education at the Nagoya Commercial College. He and his wife, Ise, are the parents of four sons and a daughter, and are members of the Buddhist religion.

Robert E. Hucker

Wayne P. Marshall

Leonard M. Cella, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a Director, has held all major offices in his club, served as zone chairman and district governor, and has received the International President's Award, Extension Awards, and a Master Key. A University of Pennsylvania graduate, he is a realtor and builder, and is active in many civic organizations. Lion Cella and his wife, Mary, have three sons and are Roman Catholics.

Robert Edward Hucker, of Jacksonville, Florida, a Director, possesses a perfect attendance record of 22 years. A past club president and district governor, he has also served as president of the Florida Lions Foundation for the Blind. He is an attorney and received his degree from La Salle Extension University. Lion Hucker is an Episcopalian and he and his wife, Mardise, are the parents of two children.

Harold A. Norgard

W.C. "Bill" Padon

Wayne Preston Marshall, Kearney, Nebraska, Director, has been an active Lion for 18 years and is a past president of his club. He has also served as zone chairman and district governor and holds both Master Key and Supreme Extension Awards. He received his doctorate in education from Colorado State University and is now an instructor at Kearney State College. Lion Marshall is a member of the United Methodist Church. He and his wife, Doris, have three children.

Harold A. Norgard, of North St. Paul, Minnesota, Director, has served as zone chairman and district governor, and holds three Extension Awards and a Master Key. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Minnesota and is now a businessman, teacher and coach. Lion Norgard is a commander in the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve. He and his wife, Marion, have three daughters. He is a Lutheran.

W.C. "Bill" Padon, of Louisville, Kentucky, a Director, has held all club offices and served as zone chairman and district governor. An education administrator, he is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and served in the Navy during WW II. He holds three Extension Awards, the Presidential Award and is a Key member. Lion Padon is a Baptist. He and his wife, Naomi, have two children.

Charles G. Page

Joao Fernando Sobral

Orly J. Sorrel

Herman West

Robert G. Wright

Charles G. Page, Gravois Mills, Missouri, a Director, has served in numerous district posts as well as holding all offices in his club. He attended the University of Missouri and was a Navy lieutenant commander during World War II. He is now self-employed in boat sales, service and storage, and is a member of many midwest trade associations. A Baptist, he and his wife, Audrey, are the parents of four children.

Joao Fernando Sobral, of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Director, holds Leo, Melvin Jones and 100% District Governor awards. He is an economist, a company president and a college professor. A civic leader, Lion Sobral has been honored for his work in economics, is president of the Sao Paulo Eastern Zone Industrial Association and is treasurer-councilor of the Brazil-Japan Cultural Alliance. He and his wife, Elba, have four children and are Roman Catholics.

Orly J. Sorrel, Seattle, Washington, Director, has served as his club's president, zone chairman and district governor. He has worked on many convention committees, received the Zone Chairman Award, and was cited by the mayor of Seattle for his outstanding Lionistic achievements. He has 16 years' perfect attendance and is an Advancement Key member. He received a law degree from Gonzaga University and is now an attorney. He and his wife, Joyce, are the parents of two children.

Herman West, Searcy, Arkansas, a Director, has held all club offices and was a 100% District Governor. He has received the Supreme Extension Award and a Master Key. Lion West attended Harding College and North Texas State University, and is currently director of the printing department at Harding. He is a past president of Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind. He and his wife, Dorothy, have two children. Lion West is a member of the Church of Christ.

Robert Gordon Wright, of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, a Director, has served as club president and district governor. A former officer in the Canadian Army, he is currently an electrical contractor. He has 20 years' perfect attendance. Lion Wright is an active volunteer in many civic and professional organizations. He and his wife, Vicky, are the parents of two sons and a daughter. Director Wright is a member of the United Church of Canada.