

Dr. Robert D. McCullough, Tulsa, Oklahoma, is the President of Lions International. A Lion since 1941 and a member of the Tulsa (Downtown) club since 1943, he has a perfect attendance record. Dr. McCullough was elected to the Third International Vice-Presidency at the Chicago Convention in 1967. He previously was an International Director in 1963-65 and a District Governor. A Master Key holder, he's received International President's Awards, six Extension Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. An osteopathic physician, he received his doctorate from the Kansas City College of Osteopathy and Surgery. He is vice-president of the Oklahoma State Board of Health and a past president of the American Osteopathic Association. In addition to his many civic activities, he is a director of the Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind and the Oklahoma Lions' I-O-A Ranch for Boys, chairman of the Tulsa Youth for Christ board of directors and a deacon of the First Baptist Church. He was previously a member and chairman of the board of directors of Youth for Christ International. He and his wife, Bert, have two married children, Robert Dale II and Carol, and six grandchildren.

Officers and Directors of Lions International

W. Richard Bryan, Doylestown, Ohio, is the Immediate Past President. An International Director in 1957-59 and a 100% district governor, he holds nine Presidential Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. Lion Bryan is a Wooster College graduate who attended graduate school at Ohio State and participated in the advanced management program at Harvard Graduate School of Business. After five years as a Doylestown high school teacher, he joined Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. in 1945 where he is now Director of Management Development. Active in many civic groups, he served for many years on the local board of education and is now on the professional training committee for the Boy Scouts of America. He and his wife, Celia, are members of the Methodist Church and have two children, Sally and Larry.

Robert J. Uplinger

George Friedrichs

Tris Coffin

Leonard M. Cella

Robert E. Hucker

Wayne P. Marshall

Harold A. Norgard

Robert J. Uplinger, Syracuse, New York, is the First Vice-President. A member of the Syracuse club since 1946, he was a 100% district governor in 1956-57 and was chairman of the New York Council. He served on the International Board in 1964-66. Lion Uplinger is the recipient of the Membership Key, two Extension Awards, New York State Council Awards and three Presidential Awards. He served two terms as president of the Syracuse Association of the Blind. An industrial engineer, he is president and treasurer of a firm which distributes power transmission equipment. He and his wife Martha are members of the First English Lutheran Church and have two children, Robert Jr. and Karen.

George Friedrichs, of Annecy, France, is the Second Vice-President. A member of the Annecy club since 1954 and a past president, Lion Friedrichs is a former zone chairman, 100% district governor, and an International Director in 1964-66. He holds seven International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. Lion Friedrichs is an electronics engineer and serves as director and advisor of several companies. He has been an officer and member of various club associations in Annecy. He and his wife, Ninon, have three married daughters.

Tris Coffin, Montreal, Quebec, Canada, is the Third Vice-President. An optician, he has been a member of the Montreal (Central) club since 1939 and was its president in 1952-53. He has served in all district offices and was an International Director in 1961-63. A Master Key member and 100% governor, he has a 24 years' perfect attendance record and is the recipient of two Extension Awards, five International President's Awards and two International President's appreciation certificates. He and his wife, Gil, are Roman Catholics. Lion Coffin has two married sons and three grandchildren.

Leonard M. Cella, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a Director, has held all major offices in his club, served as zone chairman and 100% district governor, and has received Extension Awards and a Senior Master Key. A University of Pennsylvania graduate, he is a realtor and builder, and is a past president of the Delaware Valley Eye Bank. Lion Cella and his wife, Mary, have three children and are Roman Catholics.

Robert Edward Hucker, of Jacksonville, Florida, a Director, possesses a perfect attendance record of 23 years. A past club president and district governor, he has also served as president of the Florida Lions Foundation for the Blind. He is an attorney and received his degree from La Salle Extension University. Lion Hucker is an Episcopalian and he and his wife, Mardise, are the parents of five children and three grandchildren.

Wayne Preston Marshall, Kearney, Nebraska, Director, has been an active Lion for 19 years and is a past president of his club. He has also served as zone chairman and 100% district governor and holds both Master Key and Supreme Extension Awards. He received his doctorate in education from the University of Northern Colorado and is now an instructor at Kearney State College. Lion Marshall is a member of the United Methodist Church. He and his wife, Doris, have three children.

Harold A. Norgard, of North St. Paul, Minnesota, Director, has served as zone chairman and district governor, and holds four Extension Awards and a Master Key. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Minnesota and is now a businessman, teacher and coach. Lion Norgard is a commander in the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve. He and his wife, Marion, have three children and a grandchild. He is a Lutheran.

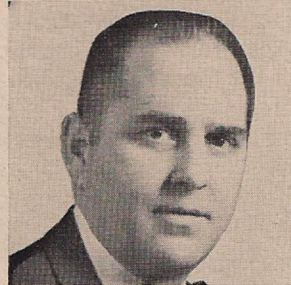

W.C. "Bill" Padon

Charles G. Page

Joao Fernando Sobral

Orly J. Sorrel

Herman West

Robert Gordon Wright

Denis D. Bersoux

Erich Buck

W.C. "Bill" Padon, of Louisville, Kentucky, a Director, has held all club offices and served as zone chairman and district governor. An education administrator, he is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and served in the Navy during WW II. He holds three Extension Awards, the Presidential Award and is a Key member. Lion Padon is a Baptist. He and his wife, Naomi, have two children.

Charles G. Page, Gravois Mills, Missouri, a Director, has served in numerous district posts as well as holding all offices in his club. A Key member with 16 years' perfect attendance, he holds three Extension Awards, 100% Governor Award and a Presidential Award. He attended the University of Missouri and was a Navy lieutenant commander during World War II. He is now self-employed in boat sales, service and storage. He and his wife, Audrey, are the parents of four children.

Joao Fernando Sobral, of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Director, holds Leo, Melvin Jones and 100% District Governor Awards. A graduate of the College of Economics, Finance and Administration in Sao Paulo, he is an economist, a company president and a college professor. A civic leader, Lion Sobral has been honored for his work in economics. He and his wife, Elba, have four children and are Roman Catholics.

Orly J. Sorrel, Seattle, Washington, Director, has served as his club's president and as a 100% district governor. He has worked on many convention committees and was cited by the mayor of Seattle for his outstanding Lionistic achievements. He has 17 years' perfect attendance and is an Advancement Key member. He received a law degree from Gonzaga University and is now an attorney. He and his wife, Joyce, are the parents of two children.

Herman West, Searcy, Arkansas, a Director, has held all club offices and was a 100% district governor. He has received the Supreme Extension Award and a Master Key. Lion West attended Harding College and North Texas State, and is currently director of the printing department at Harding. He is a past president of Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind. He and his wife, Dorothy, have two children. Lion West is a member of the Church of Christ.

Robert Gordon Wright, of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, a Director, has served as club president and district governor. A former officer in the Canadian Army, he is currently an electrical contractor and the immediate past president of his trade association. He has 20 years' perfect attendance. Lion Wright is an active volunteer in many civic and professional organizations. His wife's name is Patricia. Director Wright is a member of the United Church of Canada.

Denis D. Bersoux, Liege, Belgium, Director, has held all major offices in his club and district and was a 100% district governor. He served as chairman of the International Relations Committee and has earned an Extension Award. He received a doctor of laws degree from the University of Liege, is now a lawyer with the Appeals Court, and was a professor of political economics for 15 years. A Roman Catholic, he and his wife, Jose, have two daughters.

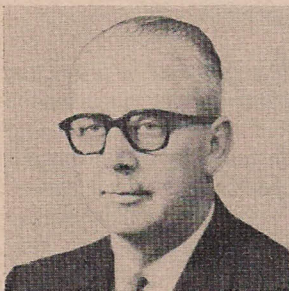

Erich Buck, of Reutlingen, Germany, Director, is a Key Member, has served as chairman of the Council of Governors, and has earned three Extension Awards. He has held all major club and district offices and was a 100% district governor. Director Buck is a pharmacist and is president of the Pharmacist's Association of Baden-Württemberg. He is of the Evangelic faith and he and his wife, Trude, are the parents of three children.

John O. Eddins

Reynaldo Elizondo R.

Dr. Anibal C. Filiberti

Dr. Warren E. Greene

William B. Hix

Vaughan D. Hulse, Jr.

Clarence J. Marquez

E.B. "Tex" Mayer

John O. Eddins, Birmingham, Alabama, Director, has held all offices in his club and served as a zone chairman and a 100% district governor. He holds the Master Key and is a recipient of an Extension Award and the President's Award. He is a senior account executive at Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith and is active in school and church youth programs. A Methodist, Director Eddins and his wife, Jane, are the parents of three children.

Reynaldo Elizondo R., Monterrey, Mexico, a Director, has served his club in all capacities and was a deputy district governor and governor. He has been chairman of the Council of Governors of Mult. Dist. B. and has earned several awards for membership development and extension. Director Elizondo is a private accountant. He is a member of the Roman Catholic faith and he and his wife, Dolores, are the parents of six children.

Dr. Anibal C. Filiberti, of Santa Fe, Argentina, Director, is a charter member and past president of his club. He has served as district governor and was a member of the International Relations Committee. A Key Member with 15 years' perfect attendance, he has received many membership development and extension awards. He is a dentist and past president of the Ethics Tribunal of Dentistry Circle. A Roman Catholic, Lion Filiberti and his wife, Ketty, have one daughter.

Dr. Warren E. Greene, Monterey Park, California, Director, has been a 100% district governor and vice-chairman of the Council of Governors. He has earned numerous awards and is a Key Member with 21 years' perfect attendance. He holds a doctor of optometry degree and is founder of the California-Nevada White Cane Days. Lion Greene is also responsible for the chartering of California's first Leo club. He and his wife, Carole, live in Arcadia.

William B. Hix, of Falls Church, Virginia, a Director, has held all major club offices and was 100% district governor. A Key Member who holds many awards, he is first vice-president of the Lions International Foundation. Lion Hix is a lawyer, past president of the Falls Church Bar Association, and volunteer legal counsel to the Eastern American Little League. A Roman Catholic, he and his wife, Shirley, are the parents of one son.

Vaughan D. Hulse, Jr., of Toledo, Ohio, Director, has served as zone chairman, deputy district governor, and 100% district governor. He holds the Master Key and six Extension Awards. Lion Hulse is a real estate broker and owner-operator of a supermarket, service station and motel. He is active with the Chamber of Commerce, the State Board for Retarded Children, and the Boy Scouts. He is a Methodist and he and his wife, Elva, are the parents of three children.

Clarence J. Marquez, Panama City, Panama, a Director, has been a 100% district governor and received the International President's Award and many membership development and extension awards. Lion Marquez is a pharmacist and a distributor of pharmaceuticals. He is past president of the Panama College of Pharmacy and trustee of the University of Santa Maria La Antigua. He is a member of the Roman Catholic faith and he and his wife, Maria, have three children.

E.B. "Tex" Mayer, La Grange, Texas, Director, has been a 100% district governor and the recipient of two International President's Awards and ten Extension Awards. He is a Senior Master Key member and a former chairman of the Texas Council of Governors. He is president of Consolidated Smokehouse, Inc., the owner of a farm and ranch operation, and active in many community programs. Lion Mayer is a Lutheran. He and his wife, Nell, are the parents of one son.

Joseph M. McLoughlin

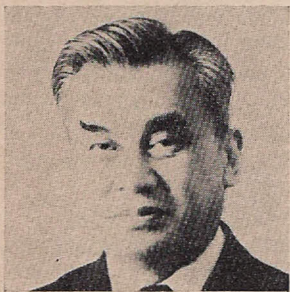

Rohit Chinubhai Mehta

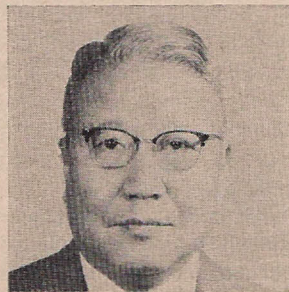

Lloyd Morgan

Grady R. Pulliam, Jr.

Hisatsune Sakomizu

Shih-Chen Tao

Thorvaldur Thorsteinsson

Joseph M. McLoughlin, of Stamford, Connecticut, a Director, has been a zone chairman, cabinet secretary-treasurer and a 100% district governor. A Key member with 14 years' perfect attendance, he is the recipient of three Extension Awards. He is the president of a realty corporation and a development company. Director McLoughlin is of the Roman Catholic faith and he and his wife, Betty, are the parents of two children.

Rohit Chinubhai Mehta, Ahmedabad, India, Director, was secretary of the first Lions club in his state and the first governor of District 304-West. He is a Master Key member and has received five Extension Awards. A law school graduate, he is an industrialist, a director of the State Bank of India, and chairman of the Gujarat Export Corporation. Lion Mehta is president of the Institute for Crippled Children in Ahmedabad. He and his wife, Asha, have two children.

Lloyd Morgan, Lower Hutt, New Zealand, a Director, has held all major offices in his district and was a 100% district governor. He is a Key member and the recipient of numerous Membership Development and Extension Awards. Director Morgan is a motel-hotel proprietor and national treasurer and member of the Committee of Management for the New Zealand Hotel Association. He is a member of the Church of England. Lion Morgan and his wife, Ngaire, have two children.

Grady R. Pulliam, Jr., of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Director, was charter president of the Twin City club. He has served as district governor and as chairman of many district committees. He is a Key member and has received two Extension Awards. Director Pulliam is president of the Triad Life Insurance Corporation and is a past president of the North Carolina Eye Bank. He is a Baptist and he and his wife, Gladys, are the parents of four children.

Hisatsune Sakomizu, Tokyo, Japan, Director, has been a 100% district governor and chairman of his multiple district council. He is a Key Member and was chairman of the Cooperating Committee for the 52nd Annual Convention held in Tokyo. A graduate of Tokyo University, Lion Sakomizu is a senator and attorney at law. He is also president of the National Association of Tobacco Marketing. He is of the Shinto faith and he and his wife, Maki, have five children.

Shih-Chen Tao, of Taipei, Taiwan (Rep. of China), a Director, has been a district governor and a member of the executive council of the Board of Governors. Lion Tao holds numerous Membership Development Awards. He is a graduate of the California Institute of Technology and is a professor of physics and electrical engineering. He is also board chairman of a chemical and pharmaceutical company. He and his wife, Wu Shih-Ping, have seven children.

Thorvaldur Thorsteinsson, of Gardahreppur, Iceland, Director, has been a 100% district governor and chairman of the Extension Committee for his district. He is the recipient of four Extension Awards and numerous Membership Development Awards. Lion Thorsteinsson directs the firm which supplies equipment and the needs of the horticultural program in Iceland. He is a member of the Lutheran Church. Director Thorsteinsson and his wife, Gudrun, are the parents of four children.