

Officers and Directors

Lions International

1977-1978

Joseph M. McLoughlin, of Stamford, Connecticut, is the President of the International Association of Lions Clubs. He has been a member of the Springdale, Connecticut, Club since 1957 and, during 1961-62, served as a 100% District Governor of District 23-A. For five consecutive years he was his District's Cabinet Secretary. His interest in global Lionism intensified and he served as an International Director during 1970-72. In 1974, he was elected Third International Vice-President at the San Francisco Convention. President McLoughlin has received nine International President's Awards, the Master Key, three Extension Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. President McLoughlin is the president of both a lumber and building materials company and a development company. In addition to Lionism, President McLoughlin is active in his community in a number of capacities. He and his wife, Bette, are the parents of a son, Glenn, and a daughter, Kimberly.

João Fernando Sobral, of Sao Paulo, Brazil, is the Immediate Past International President. He has recorded 17 years perfect attendance in his Sao Paulo-Belem Lions Club. He served as an International Director in 1969-71, is a Key Member and has received six International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. He is an economist and a businessman and is currently on leave as a university instructor. His firm, a manufacturer of thermos bottles, plastics, and sheet metal articles, is a leader in its field. Lion Sobral is an economic advisor for various public and private corporations, the director of the Industrial and Commercial Federation of the state of Sao Paulo and the official representative of the state of Ceara in the state of Sao Paulo. He and his wife, Elba, are Roman Catholics and the parents of four children.

Ralph A. Lynam

Lloyd Morgan

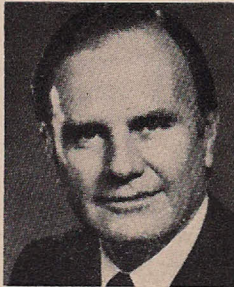

William C. Chandler

Bihari Agarwal

Louis M. Chung

Edwin H. "Ed" Flood

Rodolfo Gill Paleari

Ralph A. Lynam, of Alma, Michigan, is the First Vice-President. He has recorded 27 years perfect attendance, served as a District Governor and has received eight International President's Awards, the Extension Award and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. He is also a Key Member. He served as an International Director in 1971-73. Vice-President Lynam is a member of the Board of Trustees of Leader Dogs for the Blind and serves on the Executive Board of Directors of the Michigan Association for Better Hearing and Speech and on the Board of Trustees of the National Association of Hearing and Speech Action. He is the president and owner of a public accounting and computer systems consulting firm and is actively involved in land development and management of shopping centers and residential housing. He is an Episcopalian and he and his wife, Doty, have four children and nine grandchildren.

Lloyd Morgan, of Lower Hutt, New Zealand, Second Vice-President, has been a 100% District Governor and is a recipient of Extension Awards, eight International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. He is also a Key Member. He served as an International Director in 1970-72. A hotelier, Vice-President Morgan is the proprietor and managing director of a motor inn, and has been actively involved in the New Zealand Hotel Association for many years. He is a member of the Church of England, and he and his wife, Ngaire Patricia, have a son and a daughter.

William C. Chandler, of Montgomery, Alabama, Third Vice-President, became a Lion in 1948 and served as a 100% District Governor. He was a member of the International Board of Directors during 1973-75. Vice-President Chandler has received six International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award in 1971. He is the founder and the director of the Montgomery Lions International Youth Camp, served as chairman of the Alabama Lions Eye Clinic Building Fund and is a Past President of the Blue-Gray Football Game. Vice-President Chandler is the General Director of the Montgomery YMCA and is the President of a limestone sales company. He is a Baptist and he and his wife, Martha, are the parents of three children.

Bihari Agarwal, of Chirkunda (Bihar), India, Director, has been a 100% District Governor, has recorded 14 years perfect attendance and has received the Master Key, five Extension Awards and the International President's Award. Director Agarwal is an industrialist and owns several industries and business concerns. He has served as committee member of the All India Employers Organization and is secretary of six educational institutions. He and his wife, Tara, are the parents of three children.

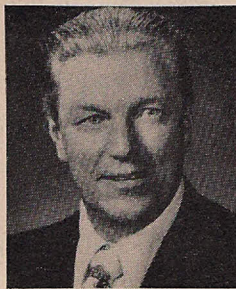

Louis M. Chung, of Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, B.W.I., Director, was a founder and charter member of the Georgetown, Guyana, Lions Club and has served as a 100% District Governor. He is also responsible for the extension of Lionism into three new countries, and has received numerous Extension Awards. Director Chung is the managing director of his own firm, and his civic activities have included serving as a director of the Guyana Zoological Gardens and Museum. He and his wife, Winifred, are the parents of two sons and two daughters. Director Chung and his family are Protestants.

Edwin H. "Ed" Flood, of Amarillo, Texas, Director, has served as a 100% District Governor and is a recipient of the Melvin Jones Award and the Senior Master Key. He served the State Lions of Texas as state membership chairman for one year, and state LIF chairman for one year. Lion Flood is involved in wholesale and retail oil and gas marketing, real estate and investments. He is a board member of Texas State Council for Economic Education and a member of West Texas State University President's Council. He is serving as a board member of the Amarillo Symphony. He is a member of the Christian Church, and he and his wife, Ann, have two daughters.

Rodolfo Gill Paleari, of Asuncion, Paraguay, Director, has recorded 14 years perfect attendance, was a 100% District Governor and is a Key Member. He has served as publisher of Paraguay's District Lions Magazine and was chairman of the Second Latin American Forum in Asuncion in 1973. Lion Gill is an attorney-at-law and is a director of the Colegio de Abogados del Paraguay. Director Gill and his wife, Elena, are of the Roman Catholic faith and are the parents of two daughters.

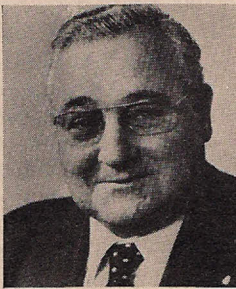

Austin P. Jennings

Adrian H. Johnson

Octavio Lopez Arvizu

Bert Mason

Nobuichi Miwa

Dr. Lawrence M. Newth

Dr. Francis K. Pan

Ian Malcolm Stockdale

Austin P. Jennings, of Woodbury, Tennessee, Director, has served as a 100% District Governor and has recorded 15 years perfect attendance. He is a Key Member and has received Extension Awards and two International President's Awards. Director Jennings is a jeweler, a newspaper publisher and a photographer. He has founded a library association and an historical society and served as director of both the East Tennessee Lions Eye Bank and the Eye Bank and Sight Research Center in Nashville. He is a Baptist and he and his wife, Carmine, have two children.

Adrian H. Johnson, of Forest City, Iowa, Director, has served as a trustee of the Iowa Lions Sight Conservation Foundation and chairman of its glaucoma committee. He was a 100% District Governor and has received the International President's Award. He is a Key Member and has received an Extension Award. Director Johnson is a professor of music at Waldorf College and previously was a school teacher for 13 years. He has served as chairman of his city's Community Concert Association. Director Johnson is of the Lutheran faith and he and his wife, Eleanor, are the parents of two married children.

Octavio Lopez Arvizu, of Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, Director, has served as a 100% District Governor and is a recipient of the Master Key and five Extension Awards. He has also received many perfect attendance awards and the Higgins Medal for Mexican Lionism. Director Lopez is a civil engineer and a partner in a construction business. He and his wife, Bertha, are Roman Catholics and the parents of seven children.

Bert Mason, of Donaghadee, Northern Ireland, Director, was the Charter President of his club and served as a 100% District Governor. He has received the Extension Award and two International President's Awards. Director Mason is a master printer and a past president of the Master Printers Association. He has also been a past governor of the Belfast College of Art and a member of the Industrial Tribunal. He and his wife, Beryl, are the parents of four children.

Nobuichi Miwa, of Hamamatsu, Japan, Director, has served as a 100% District Governor and holds the Senior Master Key and three International President's Awards. He has served his Multiple District in many capacities, including two years as chairman of its Long-Range Planning Committee, and three years as chairman of the Constitution & By-Laws Committee. Director Miwa is the president of his own firm. Active in his community, he has recently been cited for his seven successive years of service on the Labor Relations Committee of his prefecture. He is a Buddhist and his wife, Masako, have two sons.

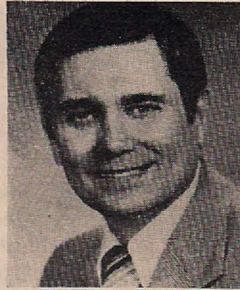

Dr. Lawrence M. Newth, of Portland, Maine, Director, has recorded 21 years perfect attendance and was a 100% District Governor and past president of the Maine Sight Conservation Association. He is a Master Key Member and has received two Extension Awards and three International President's Awards. An osteopathic physician and president of the New England Academy of Osteopathy, he is also associate dean of student affairs at the New England College of Osteopathic Medicine and is on the board of directors of St. Francis College. Dr. Newth is a Congregationalist and he and his wife, Mildred, have two sons.

Dr. Francis K. Pan, of Hong Kong, Director, has recorded 22 years perfect attendance, is a Key Member and has received two International President's Awards. Director Pan was the Founding Chairman of the Hong Kong Lions Eye Bank and Research Foundation and later its President. Dr. Pan was in governmental service, and his professional duties include being the director of a university press, an economist and a lecturer on management studies. He and his wife, Cecilia, have one daughter.

Ian Malcolm Stockdale, of Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, Director, has served as a 100% District Governor, is a Key Member and has received two International President's Awards, three Extension Awards and three District Governor Appreciation Certificates. Director Stockdale is a Life Member of the Louisiana Lions League for Crippled Children and was the first president of the Victoria Lions Charitable Foundation. He is the managing director of a real estate development company. Director Stockdale and his wife, Rae, have three sons.

Milton H. Tuttle

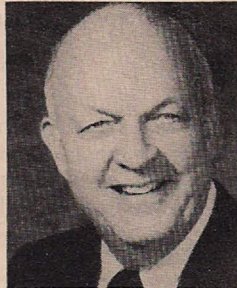

Joseph E. Wimmer

Joseph L. Wroblewski

Sten A.A. Akestam

Robert E. Anderson

John O. Gregory

Nobutaro "Nobby" Hashimoto

Ralph N. Helm

Milton H. Tuttle, of Des Plaines, Illinois, Director, was a 100% District Governor and has recorded 32 years perfect attendance. He is a Key Member and has received two International President's Awards, an Extension Award and the Ambassador of Good Will Award. An attorney, he has served his township as a justice of the peace and a collector, serving also as secretary of the Illinois Justices' Association and as president of both the County and State Collector's Associations. Director Tuttle has been active in many community affairs, and is a past president of his local Community Chest. He is a Protestant and he and his wife, Evelyn, have one daughter.

Joseph E. Wimmer, of Waukesha, Wisconsin, Director, served as 100% District Governor, is a Key Member and has received an International President's Award and an Extension Award. An attorney, he is a former Assistant District Attorney and Assistant City Attorney and he has served as president of his county's Junior Bar Association. He is also treasurer of the Waukesha-Grenada, Nicaragua Partners of Americas Program, a past chairman of his city's March of Dimes and a former member of his county's Community Action Committee. Director Wimmer and his wife, Sue, have four children.

Joseph L. Wroblewski, of Ashley, Pennsylvania, Director, has recorded 22 years perfect attendance and served as a 100% District Governor. He is a Key Member and has received an Extension Award and an International President's Award. Director Wroblewski is the president of a travel agency and an employment agency. He is also active in civic affairs, having served as president of the Northeast Pennsylvania Heart Association. His professional affiliations include being a past president of the National Employment Association. Director Wroblewski and his wife, Normajean, have four children.

Sten A.A. Akestam, of Stockholm, Sweden, Director, has recorded 20 years perfect attendance, is a recipient of the Master Key and has served his district and Lionism in Sweden in a number of capacities. He initiated the idea for two Red Feather campaigns in Sweden and for similar fund-raising programs in Finland, Norway and Iceland. Director Akestam owns a house managing company and is the managing director of the Association of Free Enterprises. Director Akestam is a Protestant and he and his wife, Martha, have two children.

Robert E. Anderson, of Los Angeles, California, Director, served as a 100% District Governor and has recorded 16 years perfect attendance. He is a trustee of the Southern California Lions Eye Institute, President of the 4th District Student Speakers Foundation Inc., and twice served as chairman of the Multiple District 4 Leo Clubs Committee. He has received two International President's Awards, 13 District Governor's Appreciation Awards and the Key Award. He is a consulting geologist and a member of the advisory council of West Los Angeles College. His wife's name is Ruthelen and he is a Protestant.

John O. Gregory, of Manassas, Virginia, Director, served as a 100% District Governor and has recorded 30 years perfect attendance. He has received the International Key, the Master Key, three Extension Awards and the International President's Award. He also served as Vice-Chairman of the Old Dominion Eye Bank. Director Gregory is a general contractor and the president and owner of a construction company. He is a Lutheran and he and his wife, Angela, have one son.

Nobutaro "Nobby" Hashimoto, of Osaka, Japan, Director, has served as a 100% District Governor and has recorded 18 years perfect attendance. He was his district's Youth Exchange Chairman and Public Relations Chairman and is a recipient of the Advancement Key and Extension Awards. Director Hashimoto is the president of a Japanese traditional confectionery company and a member of the Osaka Chamber of Commerce. He is a Buddhist and he and his wife, Yukiko, are the parents of two sons.

Ralph N. Helm, of Newark, Delaware, Director, has recorded 23 years perfect attendance and served as a 100% District Governor. He has received eight District Governor Appreciation Awards and the Advancement Key. Director Helm is an accountant and is currently a group manager in the audit division of the Internal Revenue Service. He has been cited for superior performance in regard to his duties with IRS. He is a Presbyterian and he and his wife, Gladys, are the parents of one daughter.

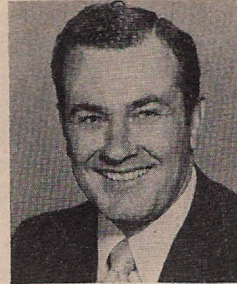

William P. Leibensperger

Dr. Enrique Lugo Silva

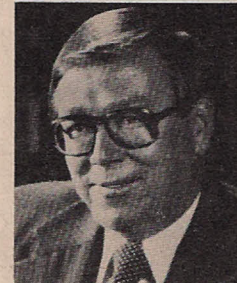

William H. "Bill" Maguire

Ray E. Marley

Manuel Munoz-Najar Cosini

Brian Stevenson

Henry D. Wofford

Jean-Jacques A. Zoelly

William P. Leibensperger, of Columbus, Ohio, Director, has been a 100% District Governor and has recorded 17 years perfect attendance. He is an insurance agency manager and for the past three years has received the National Management Award from the General Agents and Managers Conference. He is a past president of the Columbus General Agents and Managers Association. Director Leibensperger is a member of the United Presbyterian faith and he and his wife, Ruth, have four children.

Dr. Enrique Lugo Silva, of Cabo Rojo, Puerto Rico, Director, has recorded 24 years perfect attendance, served as a 100% District Governor and was co-founder of Lionism in the Dominican Republic. He has received two International President's Awards and the Supreme Extension Award.

Director Lugo Silva is a professor of History at the University of Puerto Rico and has authored three books. He also served as president of American Red Cross, Puerto Rico Chapter. Director Lugo Silva and his wife, Nilda del Toro, are Roman Catholics and have three sons.

William H. "Bill" Maguire, of Cobourg, Ontario, Canada, Director, has recorded perfect attendance since becoming a Lion in 1964. He served as a 100% District Governor and has received nine Extension Awards and the Master Key. Director Maguire is a businessman and the owner of his own company. He is active in his community and served as a member of his local school board. He and his wife, Doris, have seven children and are members of the United Church.

Ray E. Marley, of College, Alaska, Director, has been a 100% District Governor and is a recipient of the Advancement Key. For two years he served as chairman of his district's activities committee. Director Marley is an electronic engineer for the Federal Aviation Administration. He is a member of the technology advisory committee for two Alaskan community colleges. He is a Presbyterian and he and his wife, Mary, are the parents of three children.

Manuel Muñoz-Najar Cosini, of Arequipa, Peru, Director, served three terms as President of his club and has received the Membership Key, the Old Monarch Chevron, two Extension Awards and the International President's Award. He is retired after 40 years in his family's business. Director Muñoz-Najar is a past director of the Arequipa Board of Rehabilitation and Development and the Arequipa Sanitation Department. He and his wife, Carmen, are Roman Catholics and have five children.

Brian Stevenson, of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, Director, has been a 100% District Governor and was chairman of his council. He has received four District Governor's Appreciation Awards and is a member of the LIF Melvin Jones Fellowship. Director Stevenson is a judge and a member of the Calgary and Canadian Bar Associations. He is the founder of the Calgary Criminal Lawyers Association and the Vice-President of the Alberta Provincial Judges Association. He is a member of the United Church of Canada and he and his wife, Nancy-Lynn, have one daughter.

Henry D. Wofford, of Johnston, South Carolina, Director, has recorded 36 years perfect attendance and served as a 100% District Governor. He organized 15 new Lions Clubs as District Governor and he is a charter member of the South Carolina Eye Bank. Director Wofford is the owner of a men's clothing store. He is a former trustee of a children's home and, for 10 years, was a member of his county's board of education. He is a Baptist and he and his wife, Edna, have four children.

Jean-Jacques A. Zoelly, of Munisio, Switzerland, Director, served as a 100% District Governor and chairman of his council. He has received the District Governor's Extension Award. He is an independent councillor and serves as a director of several companies mainly in the fields of communications, transport and leasing. Lion Zoelly has served for seven years as a member of his community's parliament and is chairman of an association to promote Swiss products and service. He is a Protestant and he and his wife, Gilberte, have three children.